Exclusive events, exhibits and giveaways at The Novi Home Show January 25-27, 2019

NOVI, Mich.—In addition to the more than 200 home improvement exhibitors at The Novi Home Show, January 25-27 at Suburban Collection Showplace in Novi, attendees can enter to win a kitchen reorganization, receive a free consultation from an interior designer, check out unique interior designer vignettes and offer encouragement during a show long paint-a-thon benefiting the nonprofit Humble Design.

“The Novi Home Show offers a bit of something for everyone—even if you aren’t a home owner,” said Brian Starrs, HBA of SE Michigan Consumer & Trade Shows director. “Whether you’ve owned a home for 20 years, are a first-time buyer or renting, there are many ideas, professionals and exhibits to inspire you to make your home the best it can be.”

Members from the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID) Michigan are showcasing their talents with a display featuring three vignettes highlighting different decorating styles from glam to traditional. From silver and crystal window treatments complimenting chrome and glass furniture to a navy leather couch combined with the Sherwin-Williams color of the year Cavern Clay, the ASID-MI area is always a show-stopper.

While stopping there, be sure to Ask the Designer! Bring details of a design dilemma and images of inspirations to receive realistic, relevant suggestions from professional interior designers. The ASID-MI booth is located next to the Inspiration Stage at The Novi Home Show.

The Inspiration Stage at The Novi Home Show features speakers from the American Society of Interior Designers (ASID)–Michigan Chapter and the National Association of Productivity and Organizing (NAPO)–MI Chapter, as well as other show exhibitors.

Attendees to the show can sign up to win the “Get Ready to GO (Get Organized)!” kitchen organization giveaway sponsored by The Novi Home Show and NAPO-MI. In addition to a one-day kitchen organization, the prize includes $450 worth new kitchen organizational items selected and installed by professional organizers.

Long-time show exhibitor Robin Belisle of Faux Couture, New Boston, is doing something a bit different for the home show this year. After eight years of demonstrating different and distinctive painting techniques, Belisle decided to utilize her talents do a furniture paint-a-thon throughout the show benefiting Humble Design, a nonprofit that serves families and veterans emerging from homelessness by transforming an empty house or apartment into a home.

“Faux Couture and Friends” is a collaborative effort of volunteers with material support from The Novi Home Show exhibitors Home Depot and Sherwin-Williams.

“My family routinely does charity work and it seemed like it was time to do something big with the skills God gave me. Humble Design is the perfect fit as our recipient,” explained Belisle. “They will loan us 100 pieces of donated furniture and we will repaint them into new and beautiful versions of their previous look. Humble Design will use all returned items to furnish homes around the area.”

“If a particular item catches the eye of an event attendee, it will be possible to purchase some of these items with immediate pick up with every dollar going back to Humble Design,” Belisle added.
